

RABBINICAL COLLEGE OF LONG ISLAND

TRANSFER CREDIT POLICY

Students who attended other institutions that offer similar programs in Talmud study may submit their transcripts for evaluation and consideration of transfer credits. A maximum of 88 credits towards Rabbinical College of Long Island's undergraduate degree will be accepted. To earn a First Talmudic Degree, students must fulfill a minimum academic residency requirement of 72 credits earned in residence for study at Rabbinical College of Long Island, of a total of 160 credits. Transfer credits are included in the GPA calculation and the credits accepted are counted toward both the number of attempted credits and the number of credits earned by the student.

Credits may be granted, at the discretion of the Yeshiva, for study and courses taken at another postsecondary institution of Talmudic Studies providing the following conditions are met:

- The credits transferred must be based on course work similar in content, style and academic rigor to the one offered at the Yeshiva.
- The student must have achieved a grade that would have enabled him to pass a similar course at the Yeshiva.
- All credits must be properly documented.
- Transfer credits accepted are counted toward both the number of attempted credits and the number of credits earned by the student.

Decisions regarding transfer credits are subject to the same appeals process described below.

Note: Rabbinical College of Long Island does not have any articulation agreements with regard to whether the Yeshiva will accept credits from other institutions nor with regard to whether other institutions accept the Yeshiva's credits. Before enrolling in the institution, students should be sure that their attendance will help them reach their educational goals.

Please be advised that the transferability of credits and acceptance of the degrees earned at Rabbinical College of Long Island are at the complete discretion of an institution to which a student may seek to transfer. If the credits or the degrees earned at this institution are not accepted at the institution to which a student seeks to transfer, he may be required to repeat some or all of the coursework at that institution.
